“Travelled from Europe and I'm so glad I did”

I traveled from Europe for Eve's training - and I'm so glad I did! It was amazing to be in a circle of such wonderful, uplifting coaches in training and to be led by the amazing, heart-guided Eve, who shows how powerful leadership can be graceful, authentic, gentle and joyful! I experienced incredible support and huge joy in sharing space and energy with this group, and loved the various ways we were able to meet ourselves and each other on a deep level. I highly recommend jumping into this great opportunity to connect in person with an inspiring, light-filled community and with the radiant and truly empowering Eve. This is a place where you'll be encouraged to let your light shine and see it reflected in radiance all around you! A treasure!

“Helped Increase My Confidence”

The Transform Coaching Academy training was so healing for me. I loved the feeling of family and community that was developed in such a short time, and also being surrounded by so many like-minded people. I felt unsure and not at all confident in myself before, but after being here, I now feel like a strong, confident and powerful woman who could do anything! I found out how to love myself again.

“I came home a forever changed woman”

I am at least 20 times more sure that I can make a positive difference in people's lives as a coach than I felt before going to the Transform Coaching Academy training. All of the very powerful processes we did together went deep and shifted everyone in one way or another. The friends and allies I made will be life-long. Support is a very big piece of the puzzle for me in bringing my work forward. And, last but absolutely not least, I experienced Eve Agee in person. Eve, you are the real deal! Your embodied presence blows me away and is such a great model for me going forward. Your love for your work is truly beautiful to witness and your love for all of us is undeniable. Everyone should try to attend a training with Eve in the future! I guarantee you will be forever changed, too! Thank you, Eve, from the bottom of my heart!

“The immersion felt so deep”

The immersion felt so deep and the connections I've formed feel immense. I know I am supported. I found a direction that was in the making, but having it mirrored back to me with so many beautiful souls was life affirming. I'm looking forward to see how it manifests in my life. I'm taking the beauty of this training home to propel and support me on my coaching journey.
